Calendar: Coming Events in Paris, Scotland and New York City

By THE NEW YORK TIMES

Paris Haute Couture, Paris There's vintage, and then there's historic couture. This show of 100 dresses is the latter. The selection from the Musée Galliera collection — from late-19th-century Worth evening gowns (a 1925 Jean Patou dress is shown right) to an intricately embroidered outfit by John Galliano for Christian Dior — is on view at Paris's City Hall through July 6.

The Style Academy, Aberdeenshire, Scotland D.I.Y.-ers take note: the Style Academy is rolling out 60 courses that teach guests kilt-making, food foraging and preparation, and other forgotten trades and skills. Classes will be at the House of Glenmuick, an estate on 14,000 acres in the Scottish Highlands, from April through June.

Plaza Hotel, New York City The hotel where Gatsby, Daisy and the gang took a suite has brought back the Roaring Twenties, using as an excuse the "Great Gatsby" film due in May. Since last month, the hotel's Champagne Bar has been transformed into a Moët Pop-Up, and the Rose Club is holding jazz concerts on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.
